Training Overview:

The CANS Reliable Rater Training has two distinct phases. PART 1 is a self-guided preparation phase, which consists of approximately 3 to 4 hours of self-study activities. PART 2 is the trainer led portion of the training.

Participants MUST complete PART 1 of the training prior to participating in the trainer led portion of the training on April 12th.

Instructions and materials necessary to complete “PART 1: Self-Guided Preparation to the CANS” will be provided after you complete the registration process.

Upon completion of both phases of the CANS Reliable Rater Training (including a passing score on a reliability test), participants will receive their certification as “Reliable CANS Raters”. Certifications are valid for one year.

Cost: For individuals from ISP & CST sites, training expenses, including materials and lunch are covered. Travel, lodging, and other meal expenses are the responsibility of the participant.

For individuals who are not attending on behalf of an ISP or CST initiative, registration is $75.00. Please send a check payable to “White Pine Consulting” with your mailed registration form.
